

Chicago EYES on Cancer

---

Educators and Youth Enjoy Science

Chicago EYES on Cancer offers hands-on research training to secondary science educators

- 8-week applied cancer research experience for two consecutive summers
- Mentored curriculum development for inquiry-driven scientific learning
- Access to laboratory equipment, supplies and scientific literature for classroom use
- Paid stipend

Eligibility

- High school science teacher
- Strong commitment to advancing students' capacity for inquiry-driven scientific learning
- Familiarity with basic principles in cell and molecular biology
- US citizen or permanent resident

Contact

- University of Chicago Medicine
Comprehensive Cancer Center
773-702-4678
EYES@bsd.uchicago.edu

Apply

- Applications are accepted each January for the following summer.

For details and application forms, visit:
cancer.uchicago.edu/education/pipeline-programs/eyes

AT THE FOREFRONT

UChicago
Medicine

Comprehensive
Cancer Center

